

5th Annual Sustainability Fair

Saturday, May 19th, 2012—9:30am-1:30pm

First Congregational Church

131 N. Webster St., Port Washington

To Bee or not to Bee!

Presenters

- 10am Deb Baker (aka Hannah Reed) of The Queen Bee Mysteries
- 10:30-11am Charlie Koenen and his amazing “Beesentation”
- 11:30-noon Bethel Metz on “Beekeeping for the Bees”
- 12:30pm Howard Hinterthuer on the “Organic Therapy Project”

*All presentations will be in the Denet Room

Musicians

- 10am-10:45 Howard Lewis— Eclectic, All-Ages Music
- 11am-12:30 Wayne Brogelman— Native American Flute Music

Exhibitors

- Beepods—Maker of top bar beehives
- The Queen Bee Mysteries—Local author, Deb Baker, signing books
- Thill's Honey Garden—Maker of local honey
- Kallas Honey—Maker of local honey
- Wellspring, Three Sisters Community Farm and Noel Farms CSA's
- Hales Trail and the YMCA Community Gardens
- WI Interfaith Power & Light—Just, sufficient and sustainable energy for all
- Franklin Energy—Energy Conservation
- Water Star Wisconsin—Andrew Yench of the State Water Star Program
- Living Foods with Tricia DuSaint
- Emotional Freedom Technique with Patriq DuSaint
- PortFish, Ltd.—A non-profit aquaponics venture
- Transition Ozaukee—Building resilient, sustainable communities

Children's Activity Table sponsored by the Cedarburg Toy Co.

Snack Bar sponsored by the FCC Sustainability Committee

Silent Auction sponsored by the Ozaukee Community Awareness Forum